

Your Step-by-Step Relocation Plan

1. Temporary Housing

For your first few weeks, secure a temporary rental through platforms like Airbnb in neighborhoods near Chipichape Mall, such as Menga, Granada, or El Peñon, to give yourself time to find a long-term home in person.

Airbnbs in Cali, Colombia NORTH:

Cali North and West (Look for Airbnbs in these areas)

Chipichapa Mall area (North) – Mall and stores in a short walking distance, with restaurants, cafes, and expat-friendly housing.

These areas are 20-35 minutes from the airport, offer superb dining, are primarily walkable, and are safe.

The South of Cali is lovely to visit, but toooo far from the airport, and you'll need a car to get everywhere FOR EVERYTHING. The Eastside of Cali is a dangerous neighborhood.

3. Open a Bank Account After Arrival

Bancolombia (Traditional Bank Account)

Best for: Full banking services, international transfers, credit building, professional use

Step-by-Step Process

Step	Action	Details
1	Obtain your Cédula de Extranjería	Mandatory for full bank accounts.
2	Get a RUT (Tax ID number)	Visit a DIAN office (Colombian tax authority) with your visa and passport to register. Some branches may require this before opening an account.
3	Gather all required documents	- Valid passport - Cédula de Extranjería - Colombian visa (migrant/resident, already approved) - Proof of local address (utility bill or rental contract in your name) - Proof of income (pension letter, required for your visa)

4	Visit a Bancolombia branch in Cali.	Opening a traditional bank account in Colombia cannot be done online for foreigners. You must go in person.
5	Speak with a banking agent	Explain that you are a foreign resident with a Cédula de Extranjería opening a savings account (Cuenta de Ahorros).
6	Present your documents	Provide originals and copies of all documents.
7	Choose your account type	Select a plan (Bancolombia offers "A la mano" digital account). Some accounts require minimum monthly balances (e.g., COP 500,000 500,000 125 USD).
8	Complete and sign application forms	Fill out the paperwork with the agent's help.
9	Make an initial deposit	Some accounts require a small deposit (approximately $50-$100 USD) to activate.
10	Receive your debit card	Often issued on the spot or delivered to the branch within a few days. Set up online banking access.
